

As you've seen in the news recently, access to quality healthcare is reaching a crisis point in Illinois. Doctors are leaving the state en masse as malpractice premiums continue to soar. That's why The Illinois State Medical Society is distributing "Keep Doctors in Illinois" wristbands to keep this healthcare crisis fresh in our minds until we achieve true medical liability reform. We're urging concerned patients who don't want to lose their access to healthcare to join the "Keep Doctors in Illinois" Wristband Campaign
